A comprehensive offering of clean lines and pure forms combine with a contemporary composition of materials to create an enduring style.

Coordinates with lounge tables and seating, great for open public space areas or private waiting rooms.

Collective®Lounge exhibits a purely modern presence with symmetric and asymmetric forms floating above expressed satin chrome legs.

Solara seating offers contoured solid wood legs. With comfortable cushion, the design is both lightly scaled and structural.

CityPark utilizes sustainable construction to achieve an contemporary, eco-modern aesthetic.

Maddox is comprised of tailored rectilinear upholstered forms. A slight reveal separates the upholstered forms from the painted aluminum base.
