

Collective Seating brings an exciting presence to the modern interior. The cantilevered arm with upholstered pad maintains continuous contact with the back, resulting in ultimate seated comfort. Relief upholstery details provide a graphic pattern and enhance aesthetic. A signature handle reveals the Jofco logo, offering functionality and beauty.

Designed with close attention to style and ergonomic comfort, Collective Seating conveys an inviting aesthetic personality. The slim profile, tailored upholstery, and precise design elements define this executive seating line. High and mid back options present a cohesive seating solution.

Stability and durability is represented by the five star, polished aluminum base with casters.

The adjustment mechanism is offered in polished aluminum or black urethane.

Personalized comfort is provided through a knob which allows the seated user to easily modify the lumbar support. Advanced mechanisms provide additional ergonomic benefit.
